Cena Block's Biography

Cena Block is an expert trainer, group facilitator, author, and motivational speaker. Cena works with corporate and non-profit groups to deliver her engaging, interactive and shape-shifting workshops and keynote programs. She is the founder of SaneSpaces.com and creator of several workshops and group programs.

Her professional expertise comes from more than 25 years in human performance management, people and project management, coaching, entrepreneurship, training design, delivery, and consulting.

Cena's workshops provide a unique combination of self-assessment, success principles and wellness practices designed to help people take powerful actions, ignite their passions, and create time to enjoy their lives. Her workshops are perfect for staff, team or group events and designed for corporate and non-profit groups, teams and organizations.

Privately, Cena coaches professionals and "mom"preneurs to rediscover their passions and weave their past and future professions into successful, manageable and purposeful business that support a life they love. Her group coaching programs are all about helping entrepreneurs (and specifically mompreneurs) find their way forward in the world of entrepreneurship, whether they are currently managing a business venture, or are simply testing the mompreneurial waters and figuring out what is next. She specializes in helping people fly without a net!

Cena is the creator of three Signature Group Coaching Programs:

- ❑ AWAKE™ Manage Your Time To Love Your Life
- ❑ ASPIRE™ Organizing Success System
- ❑ Being AWESOME™ Reconnect, Rejuvenate & Re-launch

These programs help people take powerful actions that fully honor who they are, ignite their passions, and enable them to design life strategies and businesses full of purpose and vitality.

Cena is a straight talker (and a great singer) who is courageous enough to tell it like it is. Her 'one step over the line' sense of humor is all about having fun and embracing the moment. Cena believes that wholeness and happiness show up when you accept, embrace, integrate, and celebrate the one and only you! Her mantra is "Embrace your whole self and be exactly who you are". Through her workshops, signature programs, and VIP coaching days, Cena shows her clients how to engage and take control of their personal and professional lives in order to live authentically with abundance and gratitude.

Overview

As a productivity and business consultant over the past decade, I've worked with several private clients to develop and deliver half and full-day workshops designed around productivity topics such as time management, organizing, meetings, communication and workflow process improvement.

My workshops are designed, tested and proven to be effective with corporate work teams and employee groups. These workshops offer excellent content for staff development, productivity and team interventions, supervisor and employee skills improvement. Most are presented as half or full day workshops at client sites or locations.

My keynote and presentation topics are designed to be both informational, thought provoking and leave people feeling motivated and empowered to take action. They are flexibly designed and can be delivered as 45 minute topics or with optional activities and examples can make them up to 90 minutes in length.

Specialties

Speaker/Facilitator, Personal Coach, Consultant, Mompreneur and Author. Cena is currently the President of the Northern NJ Chapter of National Association of Professional Organizers, (NAPO NNJ) & a member of both Pike County and Greater Scranton Chambers of Commerce.

WORKSHOPS

These workshops offer excellent content for staff development, productivity and team interventions, and for supervisor, management and employee skills improvement. Workshops can be presented as either half or full day versions at client sites or locations.

Workshop Summary #1: Beyond Organized: Embracing Your Natural Style To Find Flow

Description

Have you ever wondered why time and space are so illusive and continue to get in your way? Typically, time and space are the areas that cause most people a lot of pain. The illusion is that time and space are the dilemma, when in reality the problem may lie in the fact that you've never learned how to work with your natural style and habits. Beyond Organized gets you to the root of your dilemma and consistent struggle with time and space. This workshop introduces my proprietary system that finally gives you a tool to understand and embrace your natural styles, habits & behaviors using time and space. You'll not only better understand your natural style, you'll also learn how to use your strengths and identify the habits that get in your way. You will examine how to achieve flow by practicing a simple decision-making technique. This session will empower you and may literally change your life.

Key Workshop Objectives

1. Define Flow and Effortlessness
2. Define and understand the 6 Behaviors that anchors and define homeostasis within your Time and Space Style Preferences
3. 6 Time and 6 Space Style Preferences, Characteristics, Do's and Don'ts
4. Flow Foundations Model™, Free Decision Model™ & FLOW in Action™ Model
5. A personal action plan to launch you successfully forward in time and space

Program Length: This program can be presented in either a half or full-day intensive

Workshop Summary #2: Can We Just Get Along? Communication Success with Social Styles

Description

Do you ever wonder why you completely connect with some people, and can not seem to work with others? Social styles are powerful underlying factors at play that determine whether one person is endorsed or rejected by another. This course can dramatically shift your relationships with others at work, and at play! Understanding your social styles, strengths, and idiosyncrasies and how you interact with others can determine whether you reach results, or fall into toxic relationship dynamics. If you want a game-changer for team and staff dynamics, this is a sure-fire hit!

Key Workshop Objectives

1. Understand the four dominant social styles
2. Identify your personal social style preference and its characteristics, strengths, traits and behaviors
3. Identify toxic relationships and demonstrate the four key factors to reduce interpersonal tension
4. Define and display versatility and endorsement factors

Program Length: From 45–90 minutes, or as a 3.5-hour Interactive & Applied Workshop

Workshop Summary #3: Managing Time To Get Things Done! 20 Proven Productivity Strategies You Can Implement Today!

Description

This workshop is for staff members who struggle with time management. The intention of the workshop is to give people more freedom, flexibility and power over time at work. The session helps you identify your key values as a base by which you can prioritize what is important and then work within that time to maximize productivity and vitality. Learn to pinpoint when to take control and when to let go. Focusing and aligning your internal mindset and priorities, allows you honor your values, set your priorities and juggle the pieces easily.

Key Workshop Objectives

1. Measuring Time - Best practice behaviors
2. Tracking & Analyzing – Snapshot your typical week to find time leaks
3. Planning A Typical Day - Estimating and time mapping
4. Isolating personal productivity blocks
5. Managing distractions, interruptions & saying NO
6. Managing the myth of multi-tasking

Program Length: From 45–90 minutes, or as a 3.5-hour Interactive & Applied Workshop

Workshop Summary #4: Power Office!™ Get Your Office Organized To Make Work Easier!

Description

This workshop will help you get your office organized! You will be able to eliminate piles of paper, learn how to speed up your decisions and turn those existing piles into actionable items, reference files, or – TRASH. Identify where your paper jams exist, and what behaviors are standing in your way of getting and staying organized in your office. You'll create a personal paper management and filing system designed to support how you work!

Key Workshop Objectives

1. Understand your paper problems, why piles occur and what you need to do to become more productive
2. Figure out the four dimensions that underlie your organizing abilities: your spaces, your systems, your self habits and behaviors and the layers and level of support you have in place currently
3. Explore productivity techniques such as funneling, prioritizing and the 5 D method
4. Decrease your decision-making time so you can quickly move piles into action
5. Sort your own pile efficiently using my proven techniques
6. Create a personal productivity action plan you can implement today

Program Length: This program can be presented as a 4-hour Interactive & Applied Workshop and A Hands-On Organizing-In-Action Afternoon can be added to apply and implement workshop content.

Workshop Summary #5: Leading Effective Meetings

Description

Are you tired of wasting your precious time in the wrong meeting, with the wrong people, for the wrong reasons? Do you waste time by not having adequate planning, agendas, minutes, action items and role clarity? Do you dread the thought of the days where you have more meetings booked than time to do your work? Are you sick of the never-ending inefficiencies? This workshop will help your staff finally get it together! Leading Effective Meetings will help you plan, organize and conduct meetings to produce more effective results. Learn practical tips & techniques to make you more effective and even avoid meetings when possible. You'll also receive meeting planning templates you can personalize and implement immediately!

Key Workshop Objectives

1. Determine when meetings are necessary and when they are avoidable
2. Identify the three-step method of how to effectively approach meetings
3. Effectively plan, prepare and communicate about meeting agendas

Workshop Summary #6: Improving Work Processes: A Blueprint for Workflow Success

Description

Do you remember the days of Total Quality Management (TQM) and Six Sigma? With businesses running so lean, today's work processes have to be efficient, repeatable, easy to maintain, and simple to implement. With today's ever-changing workforce and the influx of new employees, the stamina and strength of work systems and processes will differentiate businesses that thrive in this economy. Workflow processes can be easily improved when you bring the 'doers' and the 'planners' together to examine and rework processes to be more efficient. This workshop is designed for cross-functional teams, and homogenous groups that wish to improve results, lower costs, lessen the time processes take, and improve customer satisfaction or working flows.

Key Workshop Objectives

1. Understand and implement the seven-step blueprint for process improvement
2. Surface current breakdowns in the work group or staff that are driving poor results
3. Identify key people in the process and the gaps that currently exist for them to feel satisfied
4. Assess and analyze the current work processes and how they are performing
5. Determine where possible, plausible and likely solutions could be implemented
6. Design solutions and align with key leaders and strategic business partners
7. Implement proposed solutions and track your results to continuously improve.

Program Length: This program can be presented as a 45–90 minute presentation, a 3.5-hour Interactive & Applied Workshop, and an 8-week Group Coaching Intensive
